It's that simple. (The voucher must be handed to the server to ensure your purchase is counted toward the charity.)

The Mission of the Bluegrass Rape Crisis Center is to:

- Empower all people to make changes that improve safety, respect, and equality in their own lives and in their communities.
- Create a safe refuge that welcomes survivors of sexual violence and human trafficking to engage in the healing process as we believe in and validate their experiences.
- Advocate for individuals affected by sexual violence and human trafficking with respect for the personal rights and needs of each person.
- Educate the community by providing both information and perspective to raise awareness and promote the prevention of sexual violence and human trafficking.

They advance this mission through crisis intervention, therapy, advocacy and education.
